The story of

GERTRUDE HAWK CHOCOLATES

Gertrude Hawk was an enterprising and innovative woman. In 1936, to support the family income, she began making hand-dipped chocolates in the kitchen of her home.

Her eldest son, Elmer R. Hawk, joined the business following World War II. Later, his son, David Hawk, joined Gertrude Hawk Chocolates. Today he serves as Chairman of the Board.

Over the last 80 years the company has grown to become a nationally respected manufacturer and distributor of fine quality chocolates. Dedicated crafts people blend the finest and freshest ingredients using time tested recipes to create mouth-watering chocolates. Every box of delicious chocolates contains a guarantee of satisfaction.
